Porta Reef – first project to be ready on Reef Island

The exclusive Porta Reef, a USD 90 million project owned by Abu Dhabi Investment House (ADIH), includes a trio of luxurious residential towers with 2 and 3 bedroom apartments, as well as six premium penthouse units. Porta Reef was the first freehold property to be available to buyers on Bahrain's new Reef Island.

The towers comprise of a total 150 units that include 51 two bedroom, 93 three bedroom deluxe apartments, and six premium penthouse apartments that truly represent the definition of luxury. Each unit also has a balcony, and residents will have access to a sea-view swimming pool and Jacuzzi, as well as separate gym facilities for men and women equipped with the most innovative exercise equipment.

Meeting the highest international architectural specifications, each of the 150 units is fitted with the most contemporary, high-end kitchen appliances, lighting and other fit-outs, and comes with a choice of marble or parquet floorings. Dedicated parking space is provided with shade for residents and visitors, accommodating up to 330 vehicles.

Porta Reef also has a sea-front boardwalk as an upscale alternative to the traditional Corniche, and its courtyard gardens and children's playground situated between the three towers provide clean, open space for family living.

Strategically positioned between the capital's new business and commercial district and Bahrain's International Airport, but with the exclusive privacy of its Reef Island enclave, Porta Reef offers the best of urban living with a timeless style.

An Insight into the Future

5 Star Hotel in Al Areen by Al Hamad Construction

In a bid to reach out for the future and unlock its secret promise, Al Hamad Construction Company, one of the largest contracting companies in the region, announced in 2007 that it will develop a five star hotel within Al Areen Development. Al Areen Hotel is one place that definitely lives up to its advertising. It is one of the charming hotel developments added to Al Areen.

Mr. Khalid Al Mukatash of Al Hamad Construction Company, gives an insight to this prestigious project.

KHALID MUKATASH

Al Hamad Construction is well known to be one of the biggest contractors in the Middle East, Why did you choose Bahrain and Al Areen Development in particular to become an investor?

We believe that the Kingdom of Bahrain holds great potential as one of the fast growing developing countries in the Middle East. In addition, the rules and laws of Bahrain suit all investors as it is very supportive in boosting the construction industry.

This insightful move by Al Hamad was motivated by the hugely attractive possibilities offered by the colossal Al Areen development project, and the confidence it inspired in both investors and consumers alike. Al Areen is a vastly growing site, and Al Hamad believes that it would elevate more possible business prospectives and the possibilities are endless.
